

YUMI Product Mockups

WELCOME

Product idea

In the course of several lectures in cooperation with my 3 other team mates, we created YUMI - Your personal hormone assistant. YUMI helps people with a female hormone cycle track their hormones and improve their athletic performance.

Notice

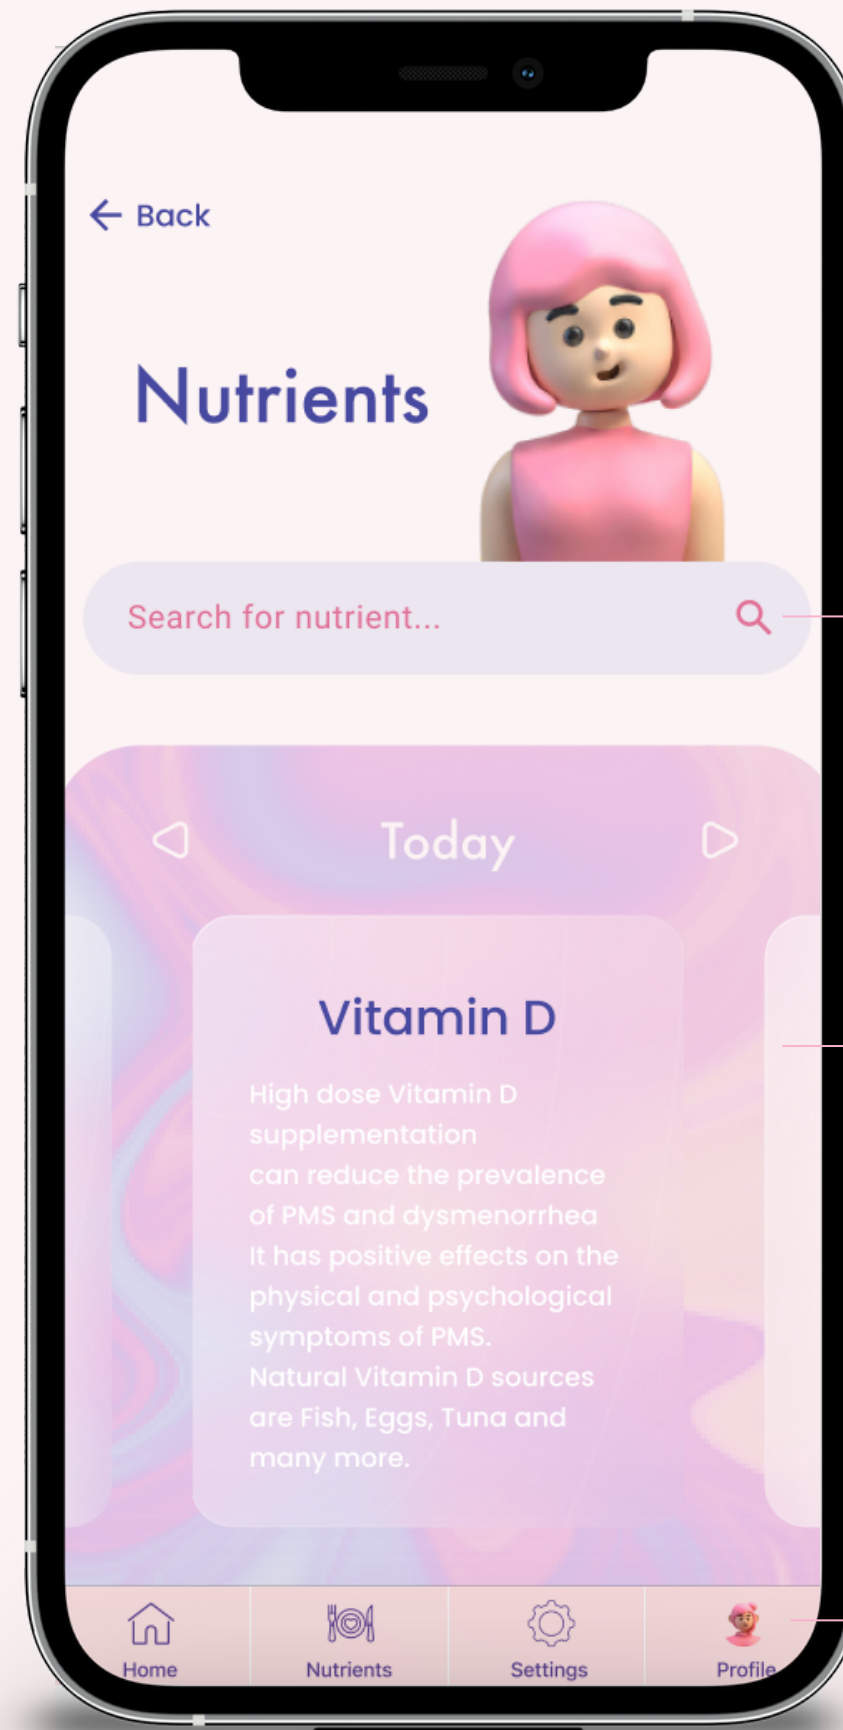

- 01 This product concept was created in the course of a lecture of my studies. It was created in a team consisting of 4 people.
- 02 The logo was created by Judith Rogalsky.
- 03 All of the screens portrayed in this presentation were created by me.

Check your Nutrients

You can see what nutrients can help your athletic performance.

01 Search for nutrients, to see in what phase they are most important.

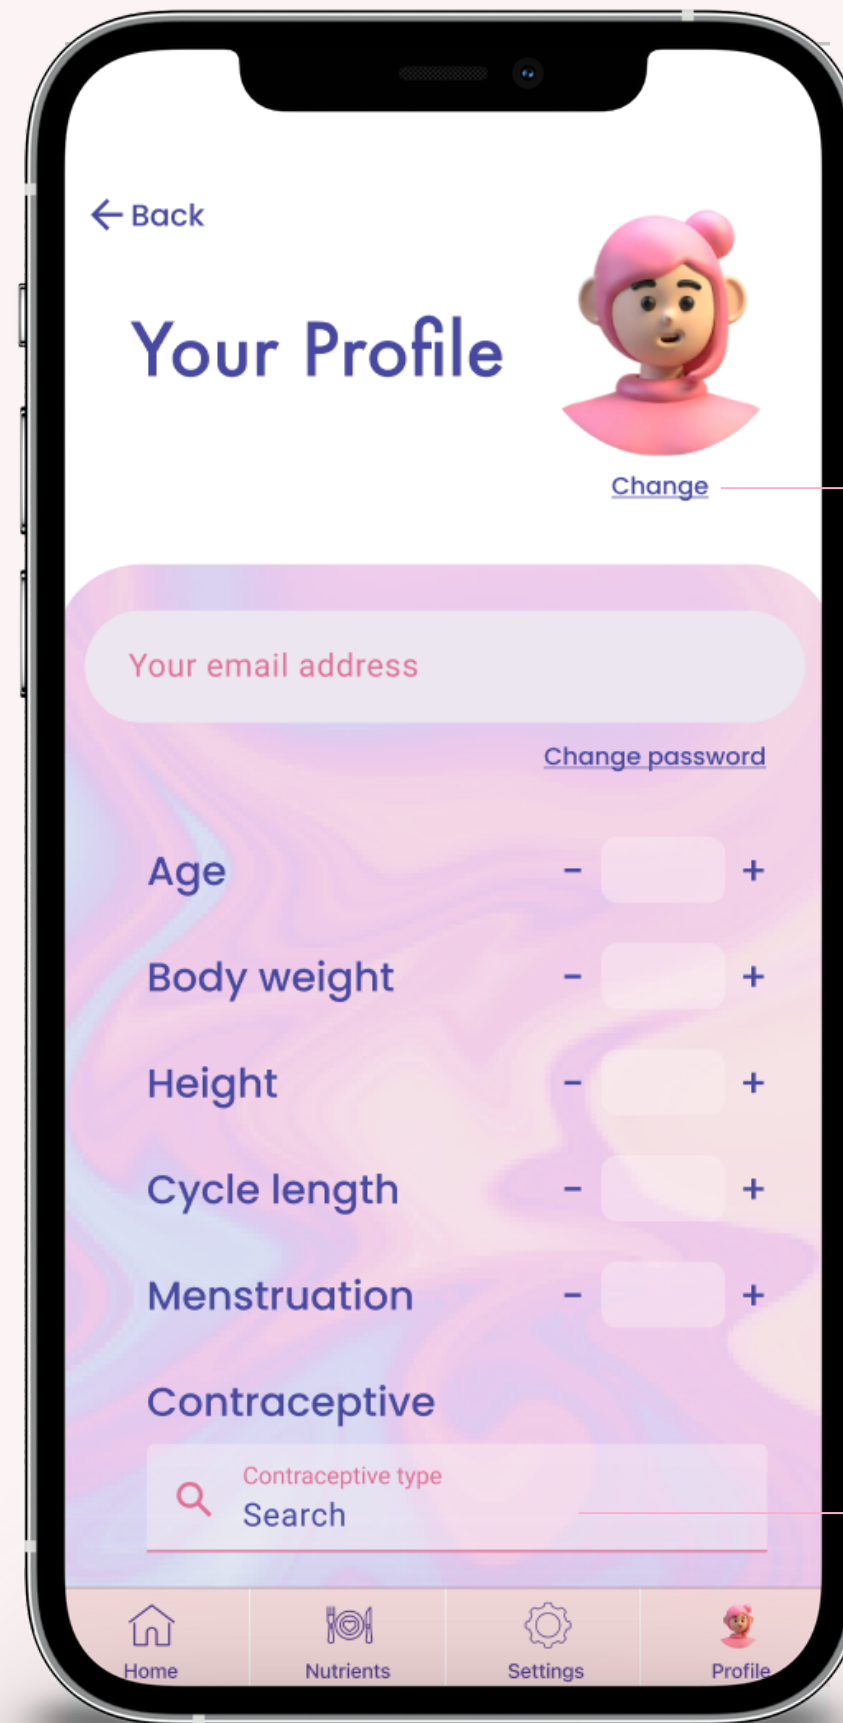

02 Short description of the nutrient and where to find it.

03 Menu to easily navigate through the app.

It's all about YOU

Create your own profile to get many personalized tips.

01

02 Option to choose your contraceptive. YUMI will adjust your tips if you're using hormonal birth control.

We won't let you forget

YUMI will send you personalized notifications so you don't have to think about it.
